SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Prior to the 1956 election Rev. Albert W. Reese (1893-1981) of Chelahis, Washington, wrote to academics, publishers, embassies and consulates to ascertain the correct translation of the phrase of 'I Like Ike' into languages from across the world. This collection contains his correspondence with those persons, as well as correspondence with button and stamp manufacturers and publishers regarding acquiring the appropriate typefaces needed and having buttons made. The campaign buttons have been retained by the Eisenhower Museum, but there are images of buttons in 55 languages in the Memorabilia folder.
