Records, 1953-1955

Acc. A67-5
Processed by: RWD and JAW
Date Completed: August 2, 1971

The records of the commission on Intergovernmental Relations were deposited in the National Archives (Record Group 220) in 1955. In August 1966, these records were transferred to the Eisenhower Library.

Linear feet shelf space occupied:	44.6
Approximate number of pages:	92,500
Approximate number of items:	45,000

Literary rights in the unpublished writings of the Commission are reserved to the people of the United States.

By agreement with the donor the following classes of documents will be withheld from research use:

1. Papers relating to private business affairs of individuals and to family and personal affairs.
2. Papers relating to investigations of individuals or to appointments and personnel matters.
3. Papers containing statements made by or to the donor in confidence unless in the judgment of the Director of the Dwight D. Eisenhower Library the reason for confidentiality no longer exists.
4. All other papers which contain information or statements that might be used to injure, harass, or damage any living person.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The records of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations span the years 1953-1955 and consist of the working papers of the Commission itself and its various special study subcommittees.

The Commission records consist of telegrams, correspondence, verbatim transcripts of meetings, minutes of meetings, drafts, and reports on the over-all topic of intergovernmental relations, and the housekeeping duties of the Commission (personnel, records management, supplies, etc.). An important segment of these records are the "state impact" studies of federal grants-in-aid. These studies consist of answers to the Commission's questionnaire by the various state commissions and of reports submitted by professional consultants.

The records of the special study committees consist of telegrams, correspondence, verbatim transcripts of meetings, minutes of meetings, drafts, reports, and questionnaires answered by the particular state agencies and organizations concerned with a specific topic. These topics include: airport construction, agriculture, education, taxation, grants-in-aid, health, highways, housing, Indian Affairs, law enforcement, local government, natural disasters, conservation and natural resources, unemployment compensation, vocational rehabilitation, and welfare.

Within each folder are cross reference sheets to other pertinent files in the collection. In addition, there is an alphabetical name index to the files in the last 10 boxes and two boxes of carbon memoranda written by the Chairman and the Director of Research.

NOTE ON THE COMMISSION

The Commission on Intergovernmental Relations was established July 10, 1953 to study and investigate the following problems: the proper role of the Federal Government in relation to the States and their political subdivisions; an adjustment of intergovernmental fiscal relations; justification for existing Federal aid programs, possible extension of Federal aid, possible limitation of Federal control connected with Federal aid.

Dean Clarence Mannion was appointed first chairman of the Commission and was succeeded in 1954 by Meyer Kestnbaum. Other members of the Commission included: Alfred E. Driscoll, William Anderson, Lawrence A. Appley, John S. Battle, John E. Burton, Marion B. Folsom, Charles Henderson, Oveta Culp Hobby, Sam H. Jones, Clark Kerr, Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, Val Peterson, Alan Shivers, Dan Thornton, Alan Bible, Hubert H. Humphrey, Wayne Morse, John M. Butler, Andrew F. Schoeppel, John D. Dingell, Brooks Hays, James I. Dolliver, Angier L. Goodwin, and Harold C. Ostertag.

The Commission submitted its final report including recommendations for legislative action to the President on June 30, 1955.
