HESS, STEPHEN H.: Records, 1959-61

Pre-Accession
Compiled by William G. Lewis

1 cubic foot
3 Archives boxes
1959-61

On February 20, 1959, Stephen H. Hess became a Special Assistant in the White House Office and served in that position until January 1961. As a Special Assistant in the White House Office, Hess' principal duty was to draft speeches for the President and other spokesman for the Administration--inside Government and out. Other responsibilities assumed by Hess during his tenure in the White House included: acting as an advisor to the Republican National Committee's "Committee on Programs and Progress", helping to gather materials from various governmental departments and agencies for possible inclusion in the 1960 GOP platform, preparing bi-weekly reports concerning congressional action on the budget for legislative leaders' meetings and sitting in on Republican congressional meetings about the 1959 Federal Airport Act.

The file is arranged in alphabetical order by subject and consists of drafts and background materials for speeches, drafts of Fact Sheets, correspondence, memoranda and reports.
