MUSEUM COLLECTIONS

The museum has about 200 original cartoons. Most were given to DDE by the cartoonists.

Archivist's Note: The Eisenhower Library does not own copyright to any of the original cartoons in our museum collection, nor do we own copyright to any of the printed cartoons in our files. Additional sources on cartoons in our holdings would include periodicals from the 1950s in our Book Collection and newspapers, such as the New York Times on microfilm.
