Pre-Acc. Compiled: WGL
Cubic feet of Shelf space occupied: 1

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Edward A. McCabe joined the White House staff on January 16, 1956 as an Associate Special Counsel to the President. He had previously served as General Counsel to the House Committee on Education and Labor from 1953 up to his appointment to the White House staff. He served in the Special Counsel's office until September 10, 1958 when he assumed the position of Administrative Assistant to the President. He, with the other members of the legislative liaison office, worked to advance the Administration's legislative programs with Congress.

This file is arranged in three segments. The first segment is arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent and contains incoming letters and carbons of outgoing letters written by Mr. McCabe. The second segment is arranged by date of letter and consists of carbons of outgoing, both personal and official, letters written primarily by Gerald Morgan and Edward McCabe. The third segment consists of drafts of the President's Labor speech of August 6, 1959.
