

Processed by: VJA
Date: 06/15/06

HAGERTY

HAGERTY, JAMES C.

OH-440

26 pp. w/index

PRQ

(This transcript is bound in Earl Warren: The Chief Justiceship)

Press Secretary to the President, 1953-61.

DESCRIPTION: Herbert Brownell's visit to Earl Warren in Sacramento; inability to comment on rumors circulating in the Sacramento Bee; possible consideration for John Foster Dulles and Thomas E. Dewey for court vacancies; reason why Warren was chosen; Brownell's role in Eisenhower's appointments; Lucius Clay's role in the 1952 campaign; importance of the California delegation at the 1952 Republican National Convention; Taft and Eisenhower contingents among the California delegates; William F. Knowland; selection of the Vice Presidential candidate; the 1948 Presidential campaign;

NAME & SUBJECT INDEX.

[Earl Warren Oral History Project, Regional Oral History Office, Bancroft Library, interview by Amelia R. Fry, November 5, 1973]