

Near Calendar.

- Sept. 4. School opens. Plenty of green material.
Sept. 23. Prof. Spangler experiments with H. 2 O. A flood results, Senior papers and other valuables are lost.
Sept. 27. Helen Gleissner falls down the H. S. stairs. Carpenters immediately get busy on same.
Oct. 5. Miss Miles forgets to say "delinquent" in Virgil class.
Oct. 7. The "Dynamite Plot," a most foul scheme threatening the High School, fails in operation.
Oct. 28. Threatened by brain fever, owing to ceaseless study, the whole High School is obliged to take a vacation.
Nov. 22. "Leave your germs at home, please."
Nov. 24. Thanksgiving vacation begins.
Dec. 4. Prof. Spangler favors us with a ten minute lecture in chapel!!
Dec. 12. Seniors order class pins.
Dec. 18. Sophomores have a poor English lesson and respond to encore after four o'clock.
Dec. 21. No lessons in Freshman class. All busy writing letters to Santa Claus.
Dec. 22. All off for mid-year holidays.
Jan. 2. Freshmen come back babbling delightedly over their Christmas toys.
Jan. 5. "Up in a balloon boys." The Senior orations begin to come in.
Jan. 17. Senior class pins arrive.
Jan. 26. Juniors give Kansas Day program.
Jan. 27. Teachers entertain Seniors.
Feb. 5. The Seniors hear something concerning a motto.
Feb. 9. Seniors go to the office to recite history, but Prof. Hall delivers lecture on "Manifest Destiny."
Feb. 13. Prof. Spangler takes a tumble. Druggists run out of arnica.
Feb. 22. The Seniors' make a "record" in Physics class but—
Feb. 23. The record is broken.
Mar. 6. Morse plants some "sweet little onions."
Mar. 15. $10.47 or fight.
Mar. 22. Prof. Hall gives an inspiring talk to the council room chairs.
Mar. 23. "On a freight train going south."
April 3. The grammar class gets over its lesson.
April 17. Miss Miles is attacked by Cerberus on the way home from school.
April 24. Seniors enjoy ham sandwiches during English recitation.
May 1. $18.70.
May 4. Helen Sterl entertains Seniors.
May 15. "As You Like It," by Juniors.
May 18. Junior-Senior Prom.
May 23. The Annual is all in, also the committee.
May 25. Misses Johntz, Hobble and Martin entertained class of '06.
May 27. Baccalaureate Sermon.
May 28. Seniors roast potatoes.
June 1. Grand Finale.